

Biofiltration

TMC Activated Carbon 4mm Pellets Bulk 19kg Sack

High retention activated carbon for marine and freshwater aquariums.

- 4mm extruded activated carbon made from bituminous coal.
- High organic retention
- Clean - low dust with large surface area.
- Fast removal of organic and other toxic pollutants which gradually build up in marine and freshwater aquariums.
- Removes phenols and other organic compounds.
- Minimal phosphate release.
- Low ash content.
- Suitable for marine and freshwater applications.

Associated items

Waterco Carbon Filter Unit

Prosep 10" Carbon Media Canister

Code	Product
5179	TMC Activated Carbon 4mm Pellets Bulk 19kg Sack

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE

Suggested usage: 1/2g per litre of system water. Activated carbon will remove products from the aquarium water through adsorption, and will gradually become saturated. It is recommended to continually monitor your water parameters and adjust usage accordingly. Change approximately every 3 weeks depending on loading.

Before use, rinse carbon thoroughly in a fine net to remove any dust created during transportation.

Supplied to Tropical Marine Centre by:

ISO certified CarboTech AC GmbH